TIME 3HRS

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Answer any three questions
2. All questions carry equal marks

1. Argue with the view that Absent: The English Teacher is a quest for national belonging.
2. What new names are needed in the novel We Need New Names? Argue.
3. 'Violence by its very nature is intended to create docile and frightened bodies.' Is this a fair assessment of They are Coming?
4. One Foreigner's Ordeal takes a stand against the dehumanization of Zimbabweans in South Africa. What literary strategies does the writer use to achieve this?
5. Discuss the treatment of the theme of difference in Welcome to our Hillbrow.
